St. Patrick's N.S. is a Catholic co-educational primary school with a Catholic ethos under the patronage of the Bishop of Ardagh and Clonmacnois.

"Catholic Ethos" in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at promoting:

(a) the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and

(b) a living relationship with God and with other people; and

(c) a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and

(d) the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith,

And

(e) which school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

The School also respects the religious beliefs of others in the community.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of St. Patrick's N.S. shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

Our school embraces:

- A sense of fairness and right relationships with all other persons
- Deep respect for all people.
- Forgiveness and new beginnings: A place where grudges are not held.
- Respect and Dignity: Deep intrinsic respect for all others.
- Affirmation and Tolerance: That we speak to, react to and act towards others respectful of their dignity.
- Personal Faith Formation: Formal prayer, religion lesson, celebrations of sacraments and the liturgy seasons of the year.
- Belonging: That all experience a sense of belonging and contribute to the promotion of the desired ethos of the school.
- Understanding: Teachers and pupils have positive experiences of school and positive relations are fostered.

Our school is a centre of learning for all in the school community. This requires high professional standards from all the teachers, a commitment to ongoing professional development, dedicated unremitting service to the pupils and energetic efforts to help children to the next stage of their development.

The focus is on the child and pupils are constantly encouraged and affirmed to achieve their best in every sphere while recognising each child's individual abilities and gifts.

The school provides a variety of learning methodologies where children's self-esteem is enhanced, their interpersonal skills developed, and they have opportunities to recognise the consequences of their actions on others. The school aims to prepare the child for further education and lifelong learning.

Staff, pupils and parents are called to witness our school ethos by ensuring that what we model is a reflection of what we promote.
